A romantic wedding photograph of a couple embracing in a lush forest. The groom, in a dark suit, stands behind the bride, who is wearing a white lace wedding dress and a long veil. They are positioned in front of a massive, ancient tree trunk with thick, gnarled bark. The scene is filled with green ferns and foliage, creating a magical, natural setting. The lighting is soft and dappled, filtering through the trees.

emotion is EVERYTHING

Emotion is everything. Like a silver thread that ties all those moments together throughout the wedding day.

From those first getting ready shots with your closest friends and family. Through the look in the grooms eyes when he first sees his bride. To the joyful exchange of the first kiss as husband and wife.

Like a sliver thread of emotions.

Your wedding is so much more than a few posed photos adjacent to the ceremony. It is in all those little details: the sun shining brightly through the canopy of the trees making a flicker of sunshine dance on the dress. Those glasses on the table waiting to be filled with wine. All your family and friends dressed up in their best attire to celebrate your love.

...and of course: The two of you on the most memorable, spectacular day of your lives.

Let me tell YOUR story.

the EXPERIENCE

There is undeniably something very humbling about documenting the most special day in two peoples lives, when love is everything and everything is about love.

Every Wedding to me is unique in it's own special way and every bride and every groom that I photograph holds a special place in my heart.

My hope is that you will feel comfortable and at ease with me around on your Wedding day. I always meet with my couples beforehand, either in person or over video chat. There really is nothing like a nice cup of coffee or a glass of wine to break the ice and give me the chance to get to know you, and most importantly, give you the chance to ask all the questions you might have and get to know me in the process, so that on your Wedding day you will feel like I'm a friend with a camera, who blends in well with your guests.

I will document your story throughout your day, with all the special moments and details. From candid journalistic documentation to a cinematic portrait session where you get the chance to have a moment to yourselves as husband and wife while I gently guide you and photograph beautiful timeless portraits that will last you a lifetime.

A couple is standing in a dark, dense forest. The man is wearing a light blue shirt and tan pants, and the woman is wearing a light green dress and red shoes. They are looking at each other. The background is filled with dark green foliage and many long, thin, light-colored roots hanging down from the trees.

get to know ME

What makes me happy besides having the best job in the world?

As a Swede from way up north near the Arctic Circle, where winter is long, cold and dark and summer is short, cool and bright, I can't get enough of tropical weather. White sandy beaches, warm waters and sunshine still feel almost too good to be true even though I have been living in tropical Singapore since 2013.

I am married to David and we have been madly in love for over 20 years. We are parents to 4 children, ages ranging from fully grown to toddler.

When I'm not working, I spend as much time as I can at the climbing gym, practising rock climbing skills together with my family.

I'm obsessed with great storytelling, whether it is photography, movies, books or my favourite; binge-watching shows on the nearest screen available.

I have been working as a full-time professional photographer since 2007, with my own company since 2010.

My secret superpower is that I am a certified CPR and First Aid Instructor.
